

What right is this?

Right to education

Rights for children with disability and support.

Right to identity

Click here to flip card

What right is this?

Right to education

Rights for children with disability and support.

Right to identity

Correct! ✨

What right is this?

Right to education

Rights for children with disability and support.

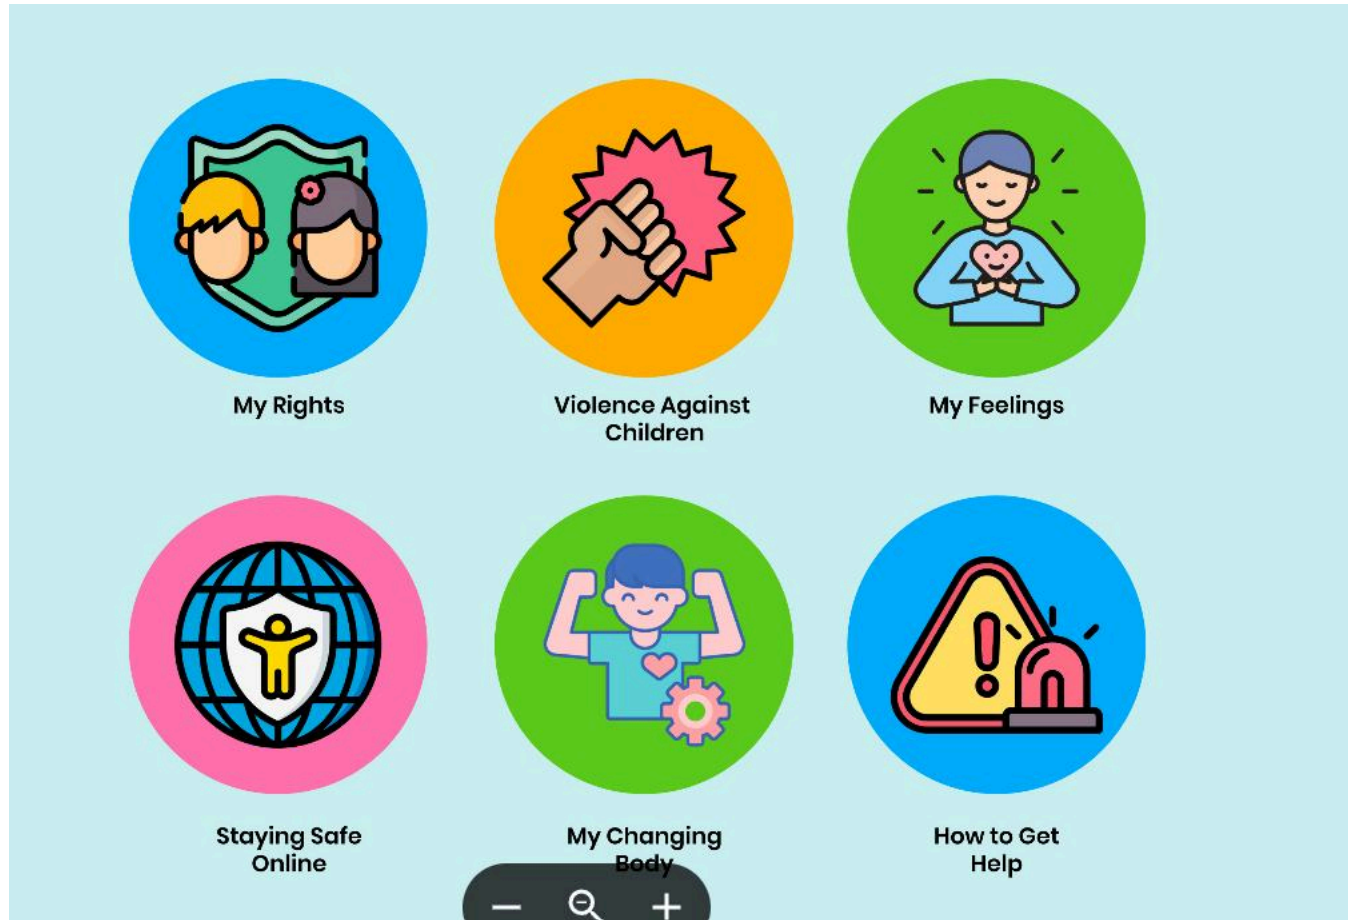

Right to identity

Try again

Right to Education

When you choose correctly, you will see a short message explaining the right. Identify at least five rights.

Click here to flip card

Match each child right to the correct description. In Kenya all children have all of these rights and more!

1. Every child goes to school to learn new things and follow their dreams.

☐ Right to Safety and Protection

☐ Right to Fair Treatment

☒ Right to Education

☐ Right to Play and Rest

☐ Right to Special Support

☐ Right to Self-Expression

Correct!

Next →

Match each child right to the correct description. In Kenya all children have all of these rights and more!

2. Every child is safe from violence (being hurt by someone), abuse, neglect (when adults don't take proper care of you / don't give you what you need to feel safe and healthy), harmful cultural practices (old rules or traditions that are not safe for children), and exploitative labour (when adults make children do work that hurts them, or isn't safe, or is too much for their age, or stops them from learning and playing). No one is allowed to hurt children or treat them badly.

☒ Right to Safety and Protection

☐ Right to Fair Treatment

☐ Right to Education

☐ Right to Play and Rest

☐ Right to Special Support

☐ Right to Self-Expression

Correct!

Next →

Match each child right to the correct description. In Kenya all children have all of these rights and more!

3. Every child is treated the same, respectfully and fairly, and not discriminated (when someone is treated differently from others because of who they are, in a way that is not fair. It doesn't matter where you live, what you look like, the language you speak, your religion, if you are a boy or a girl, if you have a disability, or if your family is rich or poor; all children are equal, and no child should ever be treated unfairly). No one is allowed to insult children, bully children, or make them feel less important.

☐ Right to Fair Treatment

☐ Right to Education

☐ Right to Play and Rest

☐ Right to Special Support

☐ Right to Self-Expression

☒ Right to Safety and Protection

Correct!

Next →

Match each child right to the correct description.
In Kenya all children have all of these rights and more!

4. Every child has time to play, have fun and develop their talents and hobbies, and to rest. Children don't do dangerous work that stops them from play and rest.

☐ Right to Safety and Protection

☐ Right to Fair Treatment

☐ Right to Education

☒ Right to Play and Rest

☐ Right to Special Support

☐ Right to Self-Expression

Correct!

Next →

Match each child right to the correct description. In Kenya all children have all of these rights and more!

5. All children with disabilities have a right to accommodation[1] on (giving children with disabilities the support and tools they need so they can learn, play, and participate just like everyone else) and resources to help them learn and participate fully in society.

☐ Right to Fair Treatment

☐ Right to Education

☐ Right to Play and Rest

☒ Right to Special Support

☐ Right to Self-Expression

☐ Right to Safety and Protection

Correct!

Next →

Match each child right to the correct description. In Kenya all children have all of these rights and more!

6. Every child can express their opinions through talking, drawing, writing signing or any other way a child feels comfortable. Adults listen when children share theirmy ideas. Adults treat children like their thoughts, feelings, and ideas matter. Children can tell them what they think about important decisions about their lives, and they will listen.

☐ Right to Safety and Protection

☐ Right to Fair Treatment

☐ Right to Education

☐ Right to Play and Rest

☐ Right to Special Support

☒ Right to Self-Expression

Correct!

Next →

Match each child right to the correct description. In Kenya all children have all of these rights and more!

7. Every child has a family to take care of them. This can be their parents, or if the parents cannot't take care of the child, another family, like my aunties, or uncles, olders or siblings, or cousins or a , or a foster family (people I'm not related to, but who want to take care of me).

☒ Right to Family and Care

☐ Right to Health Care

☐ Right to Basic Needs

☐ Right to a Name and Identity

☐ Right to Self-Expression

☐ Right to Special Support

Correct!

Next →

Match each child right to the correct description. In Kenya all children have all of these rights and more!

8. Every child can get help to be healthy, like seeing a doctor, getting medicine, having proper nutrition, and getting information and help to manage their mental health, sexual and reproductive health.

☐ Right to Family and Care

☐ Right to Basic Needs

☒ Right to Health Care

☐ Right to a Name and Identity

☐ Right to Self-Expression

☐ Right to Special Support

Correct!

Next →

Match each child right to the correct description.
In Kenya all children have all of these rights and more!

9. Every child has what they need to be safe, to develop well and to be healthy, like a safe place to live, enough food, and clean water.

☐ Right to Family and Care

☐ Right to Health Care

☒ Right to Basic Needs

☐ Right to Self-Expression

☐ Right to a Name and Identity

☐ Right to Special Support

Correct!

Next →

Match each child right to the correct description. In Kenya all children have all of these rights and more!

10. Every child has the right to have a name, a family, and to know where they come from. Every child's birth should be registered and every child should have a birth certificate. Birth certificate is a legal document and helps facilitate access to school, health services etc

☒ Right to Family and Care

☐ Right to Health Care

☐ Right to Basic Needs

☐ Right to a Name and Identity

☐ Right to Self-Expression

☐ Right to Special Support

Correct!

Next →

With great rights, come great responsibilities!

Just like all Superheroes, children have responsibilities! Match each child responsibility to the correct description

Caring about your family

Children should try to look after nature. This means:

- not wasting water or food
- keeping your surroundings clean
- caring for animals and plants

Treating others with respect

Children should be kind and helpful to their family. This means:

- listening to parents and caregivers
- helping in small ways at home
- showing respect for older people (like grandparents)

Protecting the environment

Children should treat everyone kindly and fairly, no matter who they are. This means:

- not hurting others
- speaking politely
- respecting other people's beliefs, differences, and rights

With great rights, come great responsibilities!

Just like all Superheroes, children have responsibilities! Match each child responsibility to the correct description

Caring about your family

Children should try to look after nature. This means:

- not wasting water or food
- keeping your surroundings clean
- caring for animals and plants

Treating others with respect

Children should be kind and helpful to their family. This means:

- listening to parents and caregivers
- helping in small ways at home
- showing respect for older people (like grandparents)

Protecting the environment

Children should treat everyone kindly and fairly, no matter who they are. This means:

- not hurting others
- speaking politely
- respecting other people's beliefs, differences, and rights

With great rights, come great responsibilities!

Just like all Superheroes, children have responsibilities! Match each child responsibility to the correct description

Caring about your family

Children should try to look after nature. This means:

- not wasting water or food
- keeping your surroundings clean
- caring for animals and plants

Treating others with respect

Children should be kind and helpful to their family. This means:

- listening to parents and caregivers
- helping in small ways at home
- showing respect for older people (like grandparents)

Protecting the environment

Children should treat everyone kindly and fairly, no matter who they are. This means:

- not hurting others
- speaking politely
- respecting other people's beliefs, differences, and rights

Ready, set.....Quiz!

1. What are child rights?

- ☐ A Special rewards for good behaviour
- ☒ B Important things every child needs to grow up safe and happy
- ☐ C Rules only for teenagers

THAT'S RIGHT!

You successfully matched the correct term to the description

Next →

Ready, set.....Quiz!

2. Who has child rights?

- ☐ A Only children who behave well
- ☐ B Only children living with their parents
- ☒ C All children, including children with disabilities, everywhere, no matter what

THAT'S RIGHT!

You successfully matched the correct term to the description

Next →

Ready, set.....Quiz!

3. Why are child rights important?

- ☒ A They help children be safe, cared for, and able to grow and learn
- ☐ B They help children get extra pocket money
- ☐ C They make school shorter

THAT'S RIGHT!

You successfully matched the correct term to the description

Next →

Ready, set.....Quiz!

4. Which two important international laws explain child rights?

A The School Rules and the Class Register

B The United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child and the African Charter on Rights and Welfare of the African Child

C The Weather Report and the Sports News

THAT'S RIGHT!

You successfully matched the correct term to the description

Next →

Ready, set.....Quiz!

5. What does the African Charter say about children's responsibilities?

- ☐ A Children should do all the work that adults are meant to do
- ☐ B Children have no responsibilities at all
- ☒ C Children should try to help their families and communities in positive ways

THAT'S RIGHT!

You successfully matched the correct term to the description

Next →

Ready, set.....Quiz!

6. When adults make choices, what should they think about first?

A What is easiest for them

B What is best for children

C What their friends want

THAT'S RIGHT!

You successfully matched the correct term to the description

Next →

Ready, set.....Quiz!

7. Which is NOT a child right?

A A blind child getting a birth certificate

B Having a birthday celebration

C Going to school

THAT'S RIGHT!

You successfully matched the correct term to the description

Next →

Ready, set.....Quiz!

8. Which is NOT a child right?

A Taking soda with every meal

B Being listened to when something bothers me

C Playing in a safe space

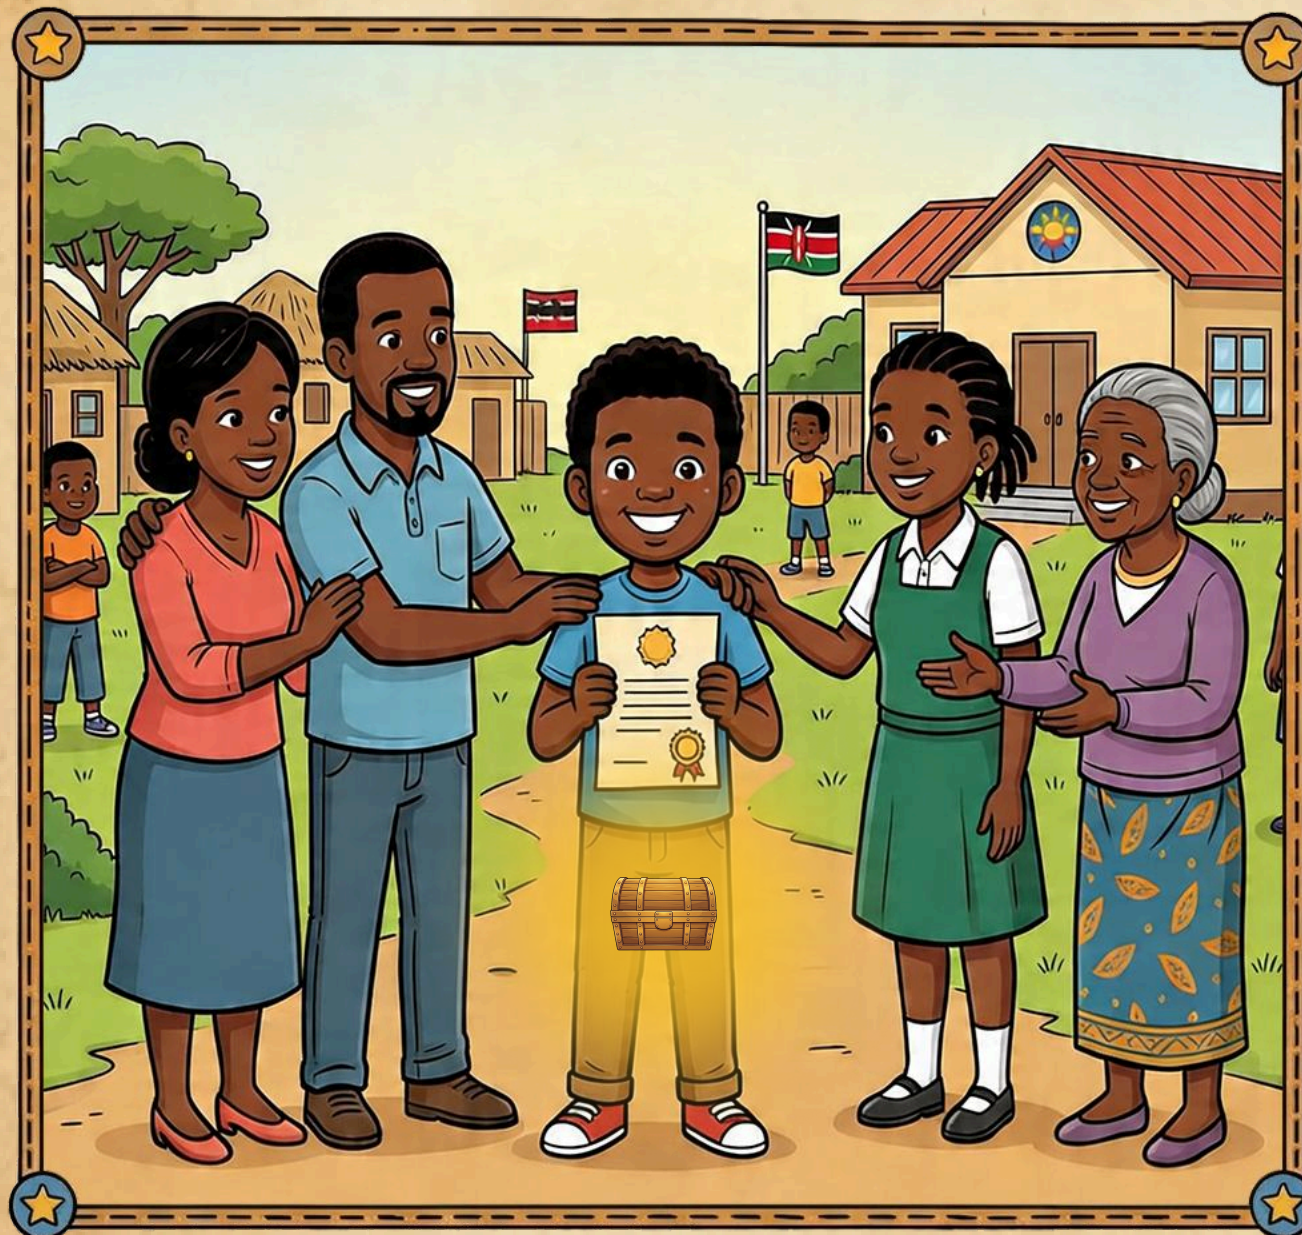

THAT'S RIGHT!

You successfully matched the correct term to the description

Next →

Game: Treasure hunt!

Can you identify all of the child rights? Click on the treasure chest to play

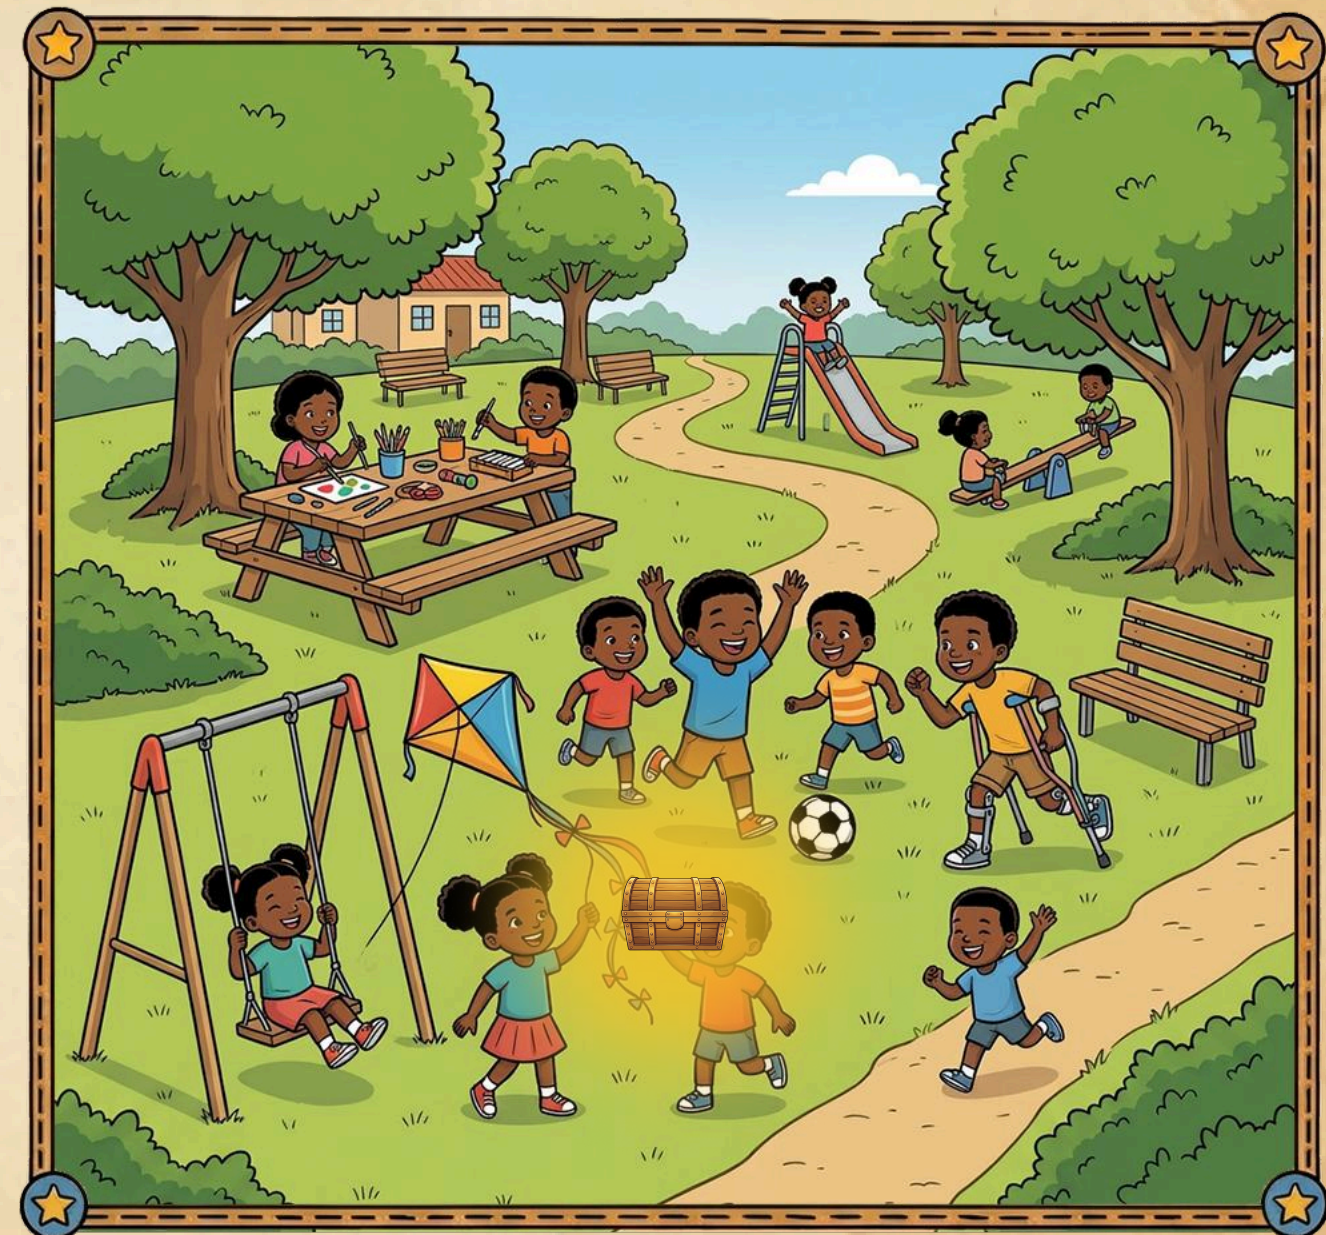

Game: Treasure hunt!

Can you identify all of the child rights? Click on the treasure chest to play

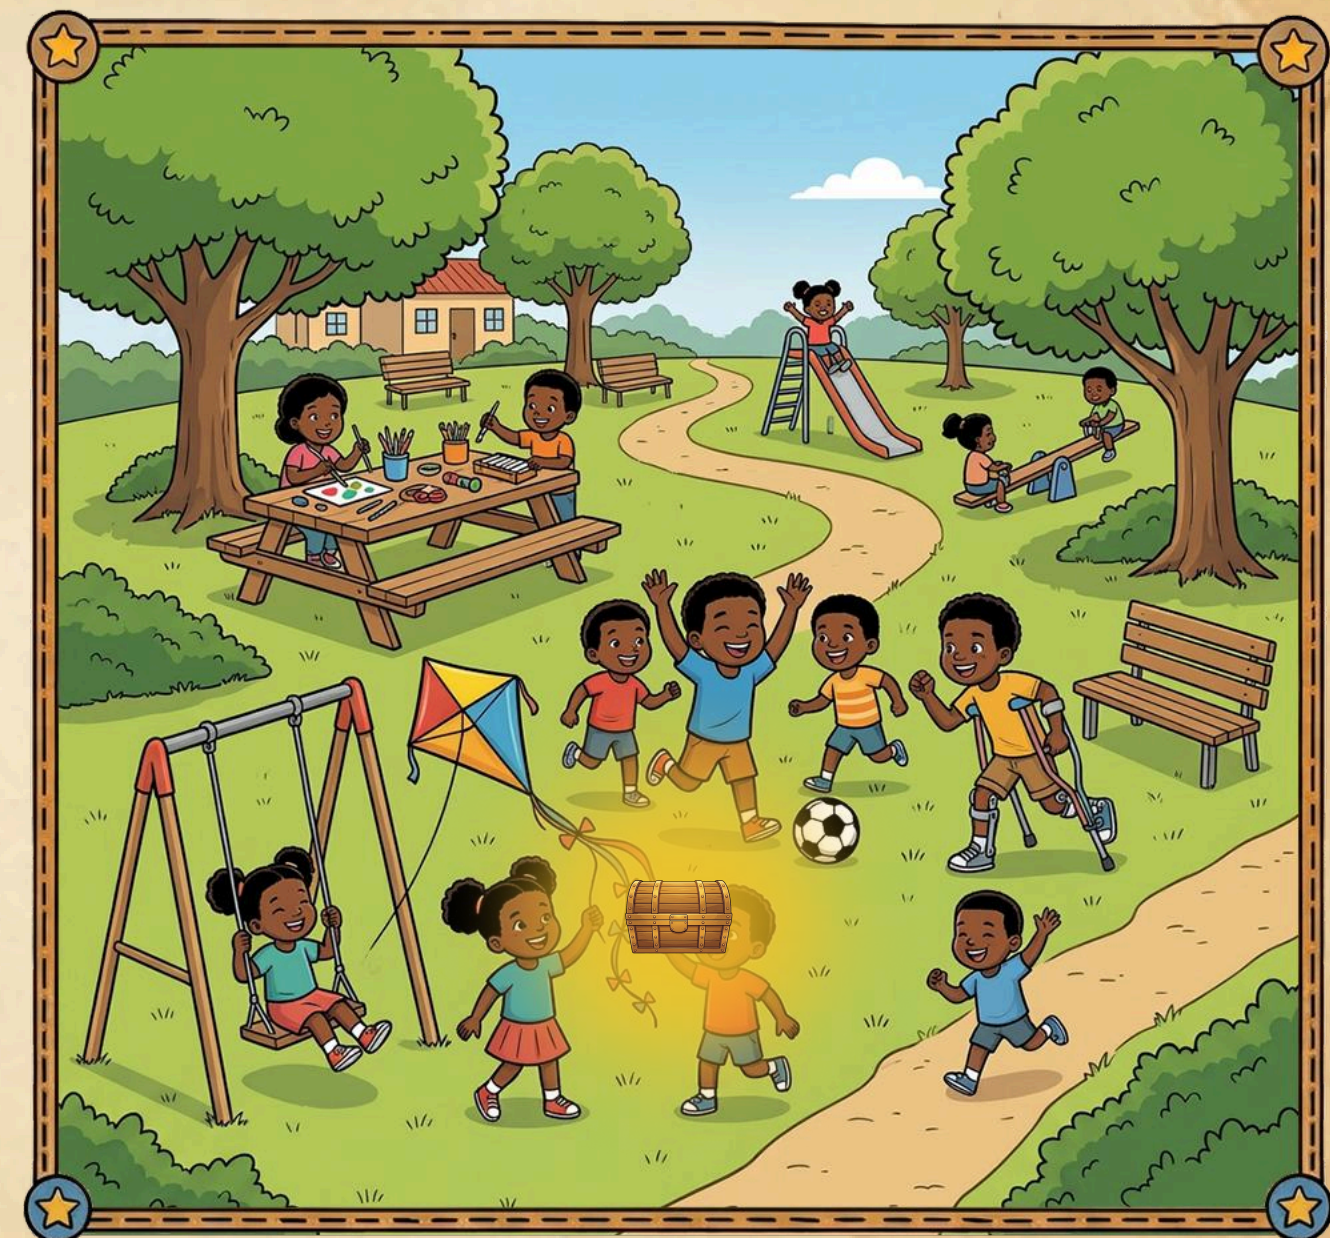

Game: Treasure hunt!

Can you identify all of the child rights? Click on the treasure chest to play

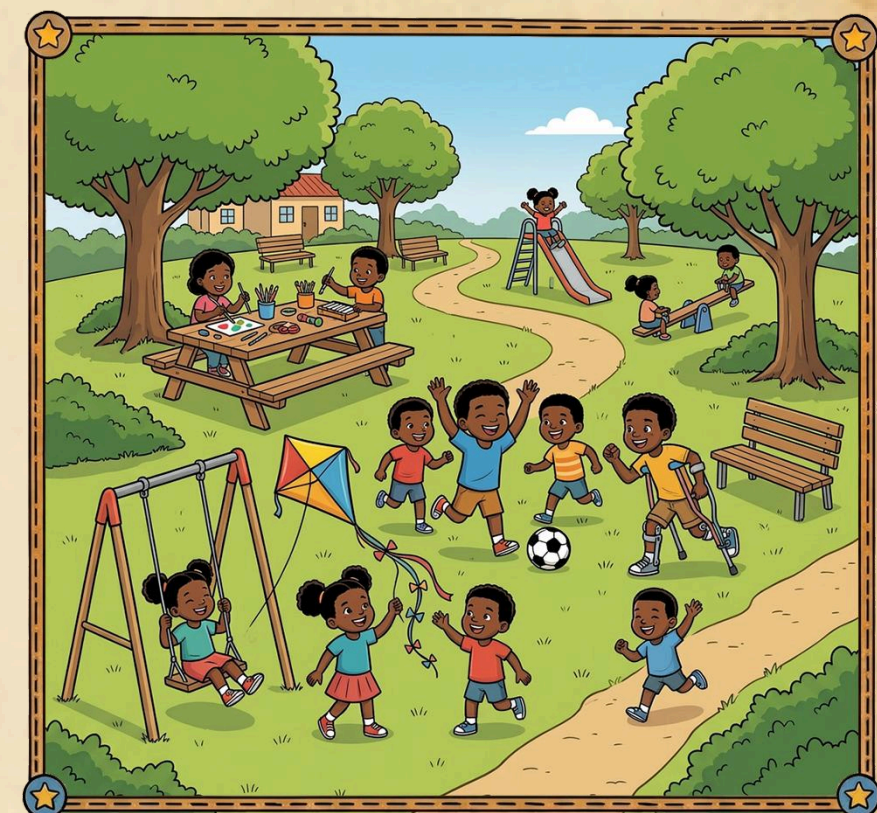

Game: Treasure hunt!

Can you identify all of the child rights? Click on the treasure chest to play

Congratulations!

You have completed the treasure hunt

Match the types of violence

Match each type of violence to the right description

Physical violence

Someone uses words or actions that make you feel scared, unwanted, or ashamed.

Emotional violence

Bullying, threats, or sexual messages sent on phones or online.

Sexual violence

Someone beats, hits, push, pinch, punches, kicks, slaps, or burns your body, or uses an object to cause pain.

Technology facilitated violence

Child marriage, female genital mutilation and cutting, child labour.

Neglect

When someone touches your private parts, forces you to touch them, or makes you do or say or look at anything sexual that makes you feel uncomfortable.

Harmful cultural practices

When adults don't give you enough food, care, or attention to grow and stay safe and healthy.

Match the types of violence

Match each type of violence to the right description

Physical violence

Someone uses words or actions that make you feel scared, unwanted, or ashamed.

Emotional violence

Bullying, threats, or sexual messages sent on phones or online.

Sexual violence

Someone beats, hits, push, pinch, punches, kicks, slaps, or burns your body, or uses an object to cause pain.

Technology facilitated violence

Child marriage, female genital mutilation and cutting, child labour.

Neglect

When someone touches your private parts, forces you to touch them, or makes you do or say or look at anything sexual that makes you feel uncomfortable.

Harmful cultural practices

When adults don't give you enough food, care, or attention to grow and stay safe and healthy.

Children's Rights

Match the violence with the right that protects you.

Right to protection from abuse

No one should hit, hurt, or injure you

Right to be treated with respect

No one should insult, shame, or threaten you

Right to privacy

Your body belongs to you; no one may touch your private parts

Right to parental care and protection

You must be given food, love, education, health care, and protection.

Right to play

You have time to play, relax and take part in fun activities

Right to protection be free from harmful cultural pPractices

No child should be forced into marriage, female genital mutilation and cutting, or dangerous work.